 Celebration of the Seder
with Paul Feinman

Seder is a Jewish ritual feast remembering the liberation of the Israelites from slavery in Egypt (Passover). This evening will explain the symbolisms and retell the story of the Exodus. We will partake in a meal similar to the Jewish tradition and will conclude with lively Hebrew songs.

Paul Feinman is a retired radio personality of 45 years. Born in Brooklyn, New York to Jewish parents, he annually celebrated Seder with his family until he was married. Over the years Paul, who eventually converted to Catholicism, has taught and shared Seder Meals at several Catholic churches.

Registration is required for this program.

PRESENTATIONS

September - "Church History & Today's Church" with Pat Murphy

2 Evenings: Sept. 13, Part 1 / Sept. 20, Part 2 7 - 8:30pm

or 2 Mornings: Sept. 14, Part 1 / Sept. 21, Part 2 9 -10:30am

Develop your understanding of two periods of Church History: The Apostolic Community and The Protestant Reformation. This background can increase your understanding of some issues facing our Catholic community today. There will be an opportunity for a follow-up discussion group.

Patrick Murphy has been a parishioner of St. Pius for 30 years. He has advanced training in pastoral theology and psychology

October 26 - "Thomas Merton" 10-11am and again @ 7-8:30pm with Fr. Jeff Godecker

Thomas Merton's greatest contribution was his extraordinary ability to link prayer, action, and contemplation to everyday life. Merton's insights are timeless, speaking to all generations.

Fr. Jeff Godecker is a retired priest of the Archdiocese. Fr. Jeff was most recently pastor at IHM. He began studying Thomas Merton while in graduate studies in 1981 and has re-read Merton's works many times since continuing to learn from Merton's wisdom.

Nov 30 - "The Hard Role of Caring for Those We Love" with Monica Woodsworth

What is needed before, during, and after deteriorating health? Changes in health and independence can't always be predicted; learning of resources and how to support both caregivers and those receiving care can help to avoid a caregiving crisis.

Monica Woodsworth holds a Master of Gerontological Studies. She has worked with the Eldercare Services of Catholic Charities in Indianapolis for 15 years. She also facilitates 2 caregiver support groups.

Jan 18 - "History of the Mass" with Fr. Eric Augenstein

Have you wondered how the Mass developed over the centuries? Wondered how the prayers were chosen and written? Come to this evening to learn these answers and much more!

Fr. Eric was ordained June 5, 2004. Fr. Eric has been chaplain at Seton Catholic High School and at Our Lady of Providence Jr./Sr. High School. Currently he is the Director of Vocations for the Archdiocese & sacramental minister at St. Agnes, Nashville, IN.
