Jr High Event Guidelines 2016-2017

The policies listed below for all North Deanery Junior High events will be followed or the proper consequences will be enforced:

*Proper Dress: Junior High students will not be admitted to the event, parents will be called, you will be asked to change if the following dress code is not abided by:

Ladies - NO spaghetti straps; tops showing bra straps; undergarments or mid-drift; halter tops; tube tops; shirts with only one shoulder strap; strapless shirts; racer back shirts; backless shirts. Sleeveless shirts must have 2 inch straps at least. Straps cannot be see-through. Skirts or dresses are to be worn with shorts or leggings. NO short shorts; jeans with zippers in the back; inappropriate graphics / wording on clothes.

Gentlemen - NO sleeveless t-shirts; underwear showing; sagging; inappropriate graphics / wording on clothes.

Your attire and dress code should always reflect Christian Modesty.

*Electronics: We encourage everyone to leave electronics at home. The North Deanery is not responsible for lost, stolen, or broken electronics.

*Entrance and Exit: Noone is allowed entrance without a Permission Form or a Parent's Note (including emergency number and parent signature) No one is allowed to leave early from the event without written parental permission or a parent picking them up.

*Guests: Only 1 guest is allowed per North Deanery Junior High Student. The Youth Minister of the student's parish must be notified at least 1 day in advance and must have a Signed Permission Form, as well as a Signed Behavioral Guidelines Form. It is the Junior High Student's responsibility to inform the guest of the behavioral guidelines. Guests must enter with their host from the North Deanery Parish.

*Behavior Policy: Your parents will be notified, you will be dismissed, and you will be suspended from the next dance if the following occurs:

Kissing; groping; any inappropriate behavior; slam dancing; mosh pits; fighting; verbal harassment; foul language; possession or use of any weapon, illegal substances (alcohol, drugs, tobacco, or other).

*Bus Etiquette: Events requiring bus transportation will have all general and specific rules announced once all participants have boarded. Any rule that is not followed will result in parents being contacted and your bus seat being reassigned next to a chaperone. General rules include, but are not limited too; NO food or trash should be left on the bus floor, in overhead bins, or in the seats or aisles; no food fighting; no screaming or shouting; no loud music, no walking or standing while bus is moving; no sitting in the aisles or on the bus floor, no participants may sit together in the same row with a participant of the opposite sex.

These guidelines are meant to ensure a safe and healthy environment for North Deanery Youth Ministry Association events. We appreciate your participation in the events and your assistance in following these rules.
